Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC)

Partnership Development Grants

Subject Area:
Social sciences and humanities.
Applicants are advised to review Imagining Canada's Future's 16 future global challenges and to consider addressing one or more of these areas in their research proposal.

Intended to:
- Provide support over one to three years to teams/partnerships, led by a project director, to:
    - develop research and/or related activities in the social sciences and humanities, including knowledge mobilization and the meaningful involvement of students and emerging scholars, by fostering new partnerships with existing and/or potential partners; or
    - design and test new partnership approaches for research and/or related activities that may result in best practices or models that either can be adapted by others or have the potential to be scaled up to a regional, national or international level.

Conditions:
- Applications may be submitted by an individual researcher or a team of researchers. Co-applicants can be affiliated with an eligible Canadian postsecondary institution, not-for-profit organization, philanthropic foundation, think tank, or municipal, territorial or provincial government OR an international postsecondary institution.
- Teams must be working in formal partnership between postsecondary institutions and/or partner organizations (Canadian or international institutions or public, private or not-for-profit organizations).
- Partnerships can be existing or new, including disciplinary and interdisciplinary research partnerships, cross-sector knowledge co-creation, research networks or partnered knowledge mobilization.
- Proposals must include training, mentoring and employability plans for students and emerging scholars.
- Applicants and co-applicants from eligible not-for-profit organizations may request a salary research allowance.
- Course release is NOT an eligible expense.
- SSHRC and its partner organizations offer joint initiatives that complement this funding opportunity.
